

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Home Auxiliary (OLPHA) Privacy Statement

OLPHA respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information that you provide to us. By using our web site, you consent to the collection and use of your personal information by OLPHA as explained below.

1. Protecting Your Privacy is a Top Priority to Us

We protect information provided to us on this Web Site in the same way as we protect information provided to us over the telephone or any other similar way.

2. What Information We Collect

OLPHA does not collect any information from individuals who wish to browse our site without registering. By your providing some limited contact information to us, OLPHA can provide you with updated information we deem appropriate.

3. Disclosure of User Information. OLPHA does not sell, trade or transfer User Information to third parties. However, we may share User Information with our business partners for marketing, advertising or product/service offering purposes. For example, we provide User Information to our service providers for direct emailing of our newsletters, online surveys or notifications on OLPHA Offerings to our viewers. We also disclose User Information if: we have your consent; we need to share it in order to provide you with the products and/or services you requested; we respond to a court order or you violate our Terms of Use. You may separately agree to provide your personal information to third parties that provide content for OLPHA Offerings, in order to access and/or use their products and/or services. If you agree to provide such information to these third parties, then your personal information will be subject to their privacy policies .

4. Accuracy and Security. The accuracy and security of the User Information is important to OLPHA. Currently, you may request updates to your User Information retained by OLPHA. OLPHA is concerned with the security of your User Information and is committed to taking reasonable steps to protect it from unauthorized access and use of that personal information. To that end, we put in place the appropriate physical, electronic and managerial policies and procedures to secure your personal User Information. We also continue to implement procedures to maintain accurate, complete and current User Information.

5. Cookies. A cookie is a small data file that a web site can transfer to a visitor's hard drive to keep records of the visits to such site. A cookie cannot read data off of your hard drive or read cookie files created by other sites. Information stored in cookies may be encrypted, however, we do not store your credit card number in cookies. If you prefer not to accept a cookie, you can set your web browser (Microsoft Internet Explorer or Netscape Navigator) to warn you before accepting cookies or you can refuse all cookies by turning them off in your web browser. However, access to our secured web site(s) requires the use of per-session cookies in Microsoft Internet Explorer, which you must enable only cookies that get sent back to the originating server. Otherwise, you can still access most of the features on our web site even without accepting a cookie.

7. External Links. OLPHA web site provides links to other third party web sites. Even if the third party is affiliated with OLPHA through a business partnership or otherwise, OLPHA is not responsible for the privacy policies or practices or the content of such external links. These links are provided to you for convenience purposes only and you access them at your own risk.

8. Terms of Use. Please also see our Terms of Use, which describes the restrictions, disclaimers, indemnification and limitation of liability governing the use of the entire OLPHA web site.

9. General. If you have questions regarding our Privacy Statement, please contact us at vicepresident@olphauxiliary.org. For other general questions, please go to our Contact Us page.
